The Young Accompanists are secondary and tertiary students, several of whom have performed in the Guild's Young Accompanists' Showcase. Other young students are welcome to apply to the Guild for inclusion. The Guild will assist in providing associate artists for the accompanists.

Adelaide-educated London resident David Barnard is the youngest BMus Performance graduate from the Flinders Street School of Music. Soloist, accompanist, chamber musician, repetiteur, teacher and conductor, David has recently worked with the English National Opera Baylis and Opera Works, the Minotaur Music Theatre Company, British Youth Opera/South Bank Sinfonia, The Gilbert and Sullivan Company, the English Touring Opera, the Irish Song Recital tour, the Oxford Lieder Festival and St John's, Smith Square London. In December 2007 he gave 24 performances in 21 days!

The critics say "... technical mastery and virtuosity... tremendous elan... staggering pianism."

David Barnard is sponsored throughout the Festival of Accompanists by Winston Music.
