

JEMS

The Accompanists' Guild of S.A provides an opportunity for six or seven young pianists still in primary school to enjoy a new experience, that of performing as accompanist or ensemble pianist with like-minded musicians of their own age.

The pianists will be joined by instrumentalists and/or singers chosen by the Convenor in consultation with teachers.

The results of preparation will be presented in a recorded and filmed public concert.

Accompanists' Guild of South Australia was founded by Diana Harris OAM in 1983 as a non-profit organization. Its objectives are to promote the status of the accompanist, to encourage and assist in establishing a unity of purpose and the maintenance of high ideals amongst accompanists in South Australia. It also provides a point of contact for accompanists and other musical groups on matters of mutual interest. The Guild organizes annual musical programs in which various aspects of the art of accompanying are demonstrated. The Guild places special emphasis on educational projects which encourage young pianists to perform with other musicians. Projects include JEM (Junior Ensemble Musicians) for Primary School students, YAS (Young Accompanists' Showcase) for Secondary School students, a biennial Geoffrey Parsons Award for advanced level pianists and the Collaborative Pianist Award for younger South Australians. Our 2021 Festival focus was on PIANO with CELLO, led by pianist Daniel De Borah and Guest 'Cellist Umberto Clerici; in 2022 we had TWO JEM events and in 2023 AGSA celebrated its "Ruby" anniversary with a Festival hosted by the Elder Conservatorium, including duo programs from the Open Music Academy as well as JEMs.
